Hi Andrew:

Per our conversation, below is the suggested change. Let me know if you have any questions.

Sec 3, sub-section 4 reads: "no person while driving a motor vehicle....may operate or be in a position to directly observe any electronic device located within the vehicle that is activated and that is ~~transmitting information or providing entertainment primarily by visual means.~~"

The exceptions are in Section 4, sub-section 5 and they read:

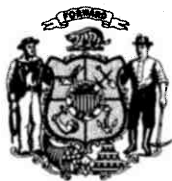

...do not apply to any of the following:

- a) Any global position system device...
- b) The display by any device of information related to the operations, condition, RADIO, or safety of the vehicle or that is intended to be used to enhance the driver's view forward, behind...
- c) The display by any device of information related to traffic, road, or weather conditions.
- d) Device that permits the vehicle driver to monitor vehicle occupants seated rearward of the driver
